SPRING INTO A NEW SEASON WITH THE YORK COUNTY HERITAGE TRUST Trust Celebrates Family Fun Day while re-opening sites for spring

March 27, 2010; York, PA- On March 27, the York County Heritage Trust will re-open the Bonham House, Colonial Complex and Fire Museum for the season. As the Trust kicks off their regular season on this day, the public is also invited to celebrate Family Fun Day at the Agricultural & Industrial Museum, 217 W. Princess St. Admission will be free to all Trust sites on March 27.

On that day the Agricultural & Industrial Museum will be bustling with family activities for the young and the young-at-heart to enjoy together. As part of the Trust's 10th anniversary celebration, the day will feature a wide variety of hands-on activities and demonstrations highlighting the various industries that enabled York to grow into a major manufacturing center. Visitors will be able to operate a wood lathe pump, learn about making crystal radios, and see demonstrations of rope-making are only a handful of family-friendly activities that will be available throughout the day. A scavenger hunt will allow families to explore the many nooks and crannies of the museum as well.

Effective March 27 the Bonham House, Colonial Complex and Fire Museum will be open for the season. The Colonial Complex includes the Gates House, Golden Plough Tavern, Colonial Court House and Barnett Bobb Log House. The Complex will be open Tuesdays-Saturdays 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Please visit the Trust online for a listing of tour times. The Bonham House and Fire Museum will be open Saturdays only 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Tickets may be purchased at any of the locations on the day of your visit. For additional information on pricing, group discounts, upcoming events and more visit us at www.yorkheritage.org or call 717-848-1587.
